Westgate Shopping Centre to redevelop food court & add thrilling new entertainment

Westgate Shopping Centre, owned by Pareto Limited, will soon be home to brand new delicious dining options in a refreshingly modern setting while adding fabulous entertainment for the whole family with the introduction of state-of-the-art Nu Metro cinemas in March 2018.

The significant new improvements and additions form part of the Westgate Master Development Project which will add a redesigned dining variety in addition to gaming and cinema entertainment for shoppers to enjoy.

Malose Kekana, Pareto Group CEO says “the project represents not just the growth of Westgate Shopping Centre but also Pareto’s success in creating real value for both its tenants and loyal customers. We are thrilled that the project will provide an exceptional new space inspired by the latest innovations in design of dining and entertainment spaces, to deliver a brilliant new experience at Westgate.”

The redesigned, high and fully retractable shopfronts, coupled with the new skylight and the fully glazed new entrance façade, will offer shoppers and diners alike, a fresh and elevated dining experience. The skylight will create the feeling of open space dappled in natural light. In addition, the central part of the mall will also feature a partially enclosed seating area to offer extra seating space for restaurant patrons.

What’s more, entertainment at Westgate Shopping Centre will reach new heights with the introduction of ultramodern Nu Metro cinemas, incorporating the latest technology in big screen cinematography. The gaming area below the cinemas will showcase the latest in modern trends of kids’ and family oriented gaming options and facilities. The combined experience of the above mentioned will be as thrilling as it will be unforgettable.

Disruptions will be kept to a minimum throughout the construction process to ensure the world-class shopping experience at Westgate will continue as usual.

“We are continuously working to improve our offering by keeping ahead of the latest trends to give our shoppers even more fantastic reasons to visit Westgate Shopping Centre,” says Kekana.
